

Prayer Needs in Malaysia

1. Non-Muslims, especially Christians are slowly losing religious liberty

Worship services in homes are discouraged

Some churches have been demolished

2. Malay has become the only national language

Need Christian literature in Malay

The Indonesian Bible and over 58

Christian books were banned

Some places say Christians can't worship in Malay

3. ADRA's work in Malaysia

Digging wells

4. Other groups of people

Chinese - some have become Christian

Orang Asli - Malays consider them

Muslim, but they dislike Islam

Indians - poor and unreached
